

The telephone useage in my home has finally returned to that which it was originally intended: receiving and making calls of choice. The quality of my time at home has improved tremendously. I do NOT want to be exposed to telemarketing from ANY business simply because I have done business with that company. I make it a policy to discontinue any business with a company that disturbs my privacy with unsolicited telephone calls.

Thank you for your consideration.